

The idea continues in front of the in-laws' house; Today is the second hearing

Dimple is fighting for his rights. The idea continues in front of the in-laws' house. The second plea to the court to be with her husband will be heard today.

All eyes are on the court's verdict. The first hearing was held on the 28th. The verdict was also announced. "She was released this morning; she's talked to her father and she's fine.

The SDJM of Berhampur was absent for the past 28 days.

Dimple has been sitting on the idea for 7 days. Activists from various organizations, the Kinner Society, and the Sahib Murabi have supported Dimple's idea. That is why the Brahmanagar area of Berhampur is now popular. Workers from various organizations are reaching out to Dimple's ideas.
